Description

Mescal offers aesthetics, ethnic patterns for the exterior and above all resistance and durability that coordinate perfectly with the Valmer and Lapel collections. The materials are in braided PET with a waterproof treatment. This material is made from recycled bottles. The rug is still made in the pure Indian tradition on a manual weaving loom. The Mescal rug is a woven outdoor rug that is made from 100% polyester fibers, and in particular from the recycling of 80 to 85 plastic bottles. This gives it strength and durability. Mescal features a variety of colours, and patterns to fit any decor styles. It is also easy to clean. Hand woven rug in 100% PET
